

Jessie A. Barry

June 11, 1926 - April 2, 2012

Jessie A. Barry, 85, of Hudson, passed away Monday, April 2, 2012 at St. Peter's Hospital in Albany.

Born June 11, 1926 in Hudson, she was the daughter of the late William and Anna (Wilskowa) Stefanski.

Mrs. Barry was employed at the Universal Match Factory in the assembly department for several years. She was an active member of St. Mary's Church in Hudson and the Christian Service Committee. She was also a member of the Ladies Sodality of the former Sacred Heart Church and the Hudson Whalers.

She was predeceased by her beloved husband, Edward Barry, in 1981, and her brother, John Stefanski.

Surviving are her devoted nieces and nephew, Gail Grandinetti of Hudson, Judith Snyder of Mellenville, and Robert Rustick of Hudson, two cousins, Bett Bittner of Rhinebeck and Carol Ann Laurato of New York, and several great-nieces and great-nephews.

Visiting hours are 4-7 pm today (Wednesday) at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

Prayers will be held at 9:30 am Thursday at the funeral home followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 am at St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

MJ

“ Gail, Judy, Bob, and family of Jessie,

So sorry hear of Jessie's passing. I have many fond memories of Jessie from when I was just a little Tike...My grandparent's shared the 2 family house on Robinson Street with Jessie and her parents for many years...She was a wonderful person.

There's a special place in Heaven for Jessie.

Michael Yusko Jr. and Family

Michael Yusko Jr. - April 04, 2012 at 11:09 PM

LB

“ Gail, Judy and family of Jessie,

Saddened to learn of Jessie's passing. A lovely, sweet person I'm proud to have known.

In sympathy and love,

Lorene

Lorene Bowes - April 04, 2012 at 08:09 AM

LB

“ Lorene Bowes lit a candle in memory of Jessie A. Barry

Lorene Bowes - April 04, 2012 at 08:07 AM

JB

“ John And Linda Bathrick lit a candle in memory of Jessie A. Barry

John and Linda Bathrick - April 03, 2012 at 03:58 PM