“ I loved my father's siblings, and enjoyed my yearly Christmas card exchanges with my Uncle John and the occasional snail mail letters. I liked hearing his voice on the phone because he sounded so much like my father, an extra treat. I had the pleasure of writing about my Uncle John's experience in the Korean War. Unsure if this link will work. Rest in Peace Uncle John. You were loved. My condolences to his family, may you find comfort. <https://www.francesdrabickwritesit.com/frans-notebook/udson-ny-soldier-wounded-in-korea-a-real-mash-story-uncle-john>
