

John Winfield

October 2, 1950 - July 22, 2022

On Friday July 22nd, 2022, John (Johnny) Winfield of Hudson, NY peacefully joined our Creator after a brief illness. He was born in Dinwiddie, Virginia to the late Maggie and Edward Winfield on October 2nd, 1950. In addition to his parents his brother Edward Lee Winfield and sister Maggie (Tootise) Winfield predeceased him.

John worked for many years for Hudson Conrail Station. His motto was "I never met a stranger" and he lived by that. If you needed a home, his was opened, if you needed a ride the passenger seat was yours for the asking. He didn't have much money to give but his heart was filled with gold. Your race on earth is done, but your journey to everlasting life has begun. Well done my brother, well done.

John leaves to mourn his passing his three children; Paris Winfield of Albany, NY, Jennifer and John Winfield of Hudson, NY, three siblings; Melvin (Juanita) Winfield of Albany NY, Alicia Winfield of Naugatuck, CT and Sheena White of Troy, NY. A grandson Zephaniah Winfield-Freeman of Albany, NY and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. One Aunt Mrs. Rosalie Davis of Catskill, NY.

Funeral services will be held on Friday July 29th at Noon, at Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, 110 Green Street, Hudson, NY. Visitation will precede the service starting at 11:00 am.
