“ Joe & Donna.

So sorry to hear the bad news. Could not make it the day of wake due to sickness. But your father's memory will always be in my thoughts as kind and fun and a true race fan.

“ Joe was always the man who would go that extra, go out of his way and really care about what he was doing or more importantly who he was dealing with and being with at any moment in his life. He was in my memories one of the most or the most giving man I have ever meet. As a young man and as a young Marine, the respect was very mutual, since I always told Joe that the Marines was the men's department of the Navy, he would laugh and then says " you Jarheads would always be late to where you had to be if it weren't for all the rides we gave ya". We had many talk later in life as we busted each other's, you know, while I had a cocktail or 2 at the VFW. Thank you Joe, you made all Vets feel special and it was you who made the VFW in Stottville the place to go when I felt I needed some comrademanship. I'm sad you left, but I know you are where you want to be, that's with your loved one who have been waiting for you way up high. I love ya Joe, I hope you have found peace and comfort, you truly deserve it my brother and friend. I'll see you again, someday, somewhere, 🙏.
