“ My dearest sweet little sister. I miss you so much. I miss your smile and your laughter. And I miss your singing. It's just not the same. we had planned on you being around a long time. we had talked about the plan. And you were looking forward to coming to live with me and Donny. But God wanted you and that was that. We did try. God knows we did and we fought for you till the end. I know your at peace but I am selfish and I wanted you here with us. You were taken too soon. If I had known you would not be where you are. But you never said anything, not to me or anyone. Why I don't know as you always told me everything and Donny also. You will always be in our hearts and thoughts. I will cherish our last days together and remember your smile and the thumbs up. Till we meet again, my sweet sweet sister. Thanks for being you. More concerned about others than your self. Rest now and sleep. And now you can wear your Trump hat all you want.

Love you always,
Jennifer
