

Judith L. Walsh

January 31, 1964 - April 30, 2014

Judith L. Walsh, 50, of Schenectady, passed away Wednesday, April 30, 2014 at Ellis Hospital.

Born January 31, 1964 in Hudson, she is the beloved daughter of Eleanor (McNaughton) Walsh of Chatham and the late Richard Walsh.

Judith was a bank teller for the Hudson River Bank and First Niagara Bank. She enjoyed doing crafts and sewing.

In addition to her mother, she is survived by her devoted husband, Nicolas Flores of Schenectady, her loving sister and brother-in-law, Coleen and Jeffrey Steward of Valatie, three nephews, Jeremy (Janette) Steward of Harleysville, PA, Timothy (Chrystal) Walsh of Virginia, and Jason Walsh of Valatie, and her niece, Amberly Steward of Arlington, MA. Also surviving are four great-nieces and great-nephews, Adam and Annabell Steward and Grace and Samuel Walsh.

Besides her father, she was predeceased by her brother, Stephen Walsh.

A calling hour will begin at 11 am Saturday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

Services will follow at 12 noon Saturday at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Mellenville Union Cemetery.

Tribute Wall

“ My sincere condolences Aunt Eleanor and cousin Colleen and family.....Mary

---

Mary VanDemark - May 05, 2014 at 10:11 PM