its been three weeks and I just dont know what I am gonna do without you!im gonna miss talking for hours on the phone half the time about nothing!and all the trips we all took as a family and the ones we took by our selves!and the unbreakable bond that we all had! we will never be able to get that again your love was fierce and unwavering we could always count on no matter what and you always knew how to make things better somehow you always knew what to say when it needed to be said! You showed us what loyalty and grace and bravery was and you did it with style that nobody else could! you had faith in all of us and you believed even if we didnt and you never stopped pushing us to do great and live our best lives and most of all you gave us a lifetime of so many memories that I am so thankful to have but its not enough cause I want you back theres too many things left for us to do and see and advice I need to ask for and your voice I need to hear!you were a super hero or better yet you wwere my hero! So please know that a day wont go by that I will not mourn for you or a day that I wont think of you and wish that we were somewhere having fun or just hanging out !!!!! ANd most of all thanks for being my mom it was truly an honor being your son!!! I LOVE MOM! RIP
