“ We knew Karen from the Route 66 convenience store, and god love her, she was there every day rain or shine! One day this past winter she crawled down her driveway to avoid the ice in order to open the store on time. We saw her nearly every day, stopping in to buy the New York Times and the occasional quart of milk. Karen was a friendly face who always had a smile for us. We miss her. -- Christi & Nan, The Falls

I first met Ksren a t JJ Newberrys mcCroy stores on Warren Street in Hudson,NY. She was a cashier and I helped Inez Rose work the lunch counter. Eugene Heath was the manager and Diane Peck was also a cashier and floor attendant. Sorry I dont remember the lady's name that ran the office. Newberry's was a great place to work. Karen and I stayed friends throughout our days. Her Brother Alfred Hamm Jr and I were close friends in school and my son Brian and his wife Courtney are very good friends of Karen 's nephew Alfred Jr jr! We kept our friendships close . Going to miss her. Rest in peace Karen.
