“ Dear Clair and Kimberly,

I am so sorry about your father. He was a character and put a smile on everyone's faces. I am keeping you all in my prayers. He is in God's hands and will be missed by all who knew him.

“ I grew up with Ken, oddly enough his name popped in to my head about a week ago and tonight I did a search for him, only to find he had passed away.

We shared a bowling team in the 70's, a bus to school for 5-6 years and the honor of both getting stuck in an advanced 6th grade class where we both asked... how did we get selected?! The school may have known more they we gave credit, Ken went on to run his business for 30 years, raise a family and remain close to God, I became a Chess Master and programmer for IBM living in Florida. I am sad we will never meet up again, it's been 40 years, yet he remains a crisp memory, a good guy, and a man who could be respected, rest in peace my old friend.
