

Leonard H. Edwards Jr.

June 7, 1952 - October 20, 2020

"Long you live and high you'll fly and smiles you'll give, tears you'll cry and all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be." -Breathe, Pink Floyd

If "all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be", then my father lived the richest life.

Leonard Henry Edwards Junior was:

Talented - There was nothing he couldn't do, a jack of all trades in the truest sense, and he'd do it all without a perfectly gelled hair out of place.

Charismatic - He had such a warm inviting personality, he could talk to a stranger for hours and make them feel like they've known him for years.

Dynamic - He had a hard time sitting still, full of energy, he lived every single day with vigor and purpose.

Selfless - All who knew him knew how giving he was. Always thought of others first and would give anyone the shirt off his back. Caring - Dedicated member of the Churchtown Fire Company, and devoted to his family. Both filled his life with so much joy while he filled everyone's with fun, love, and laughter.

He will forever be our inspiration.....

Our hero,

Love you dad.

“ Lenny was a great guy and will sorely missed. Though I remember him from School I got to know him better through his hard work at the Churchtown Fire House. He was very instrumental in the success of the THHS Class of '76 40th Reunion. My wife and I attended a number of other events after that and always Lenny was one of the dedicated few working hard, non-stop, to make sure everything got done. And he always took the time to say hello and give you a hug even if it had been a while since he last saw you. Peaceful rest to him.

“ If you were fortunate enough to be Lenny's friend, it didn't matter if you hadn't seen him in two weeks or two years. When he saw you, no matter how long it had been, he greeted you with the same warmth and friendship. We'd known each other since our days at Ockawamick. Most of the time we saw each other in a store or a parking lot. We'd catch up on what was going on in our lives. He was a special person. Will miss those sporadic meetings.

My condolences to the whole family.

“ Dear Ericka, Lenny, and Entire Family,
I send my most sincere condolences regarding the passing of your beloved Father Lenny, Grandpa, indeed a beautiful man who carried many a title in his lifetime. I did not have the opportunity to meet such a wonderful soul. However, through His children's words I know He was clearly a wonderful person. So loved and adored by so many. I also know that my words alone cannot heal the heartache that lies within your soul. The bond of love you shared with your Dad, Grandpa..... can never be taken from you for this love is eternal. It cannot be broken in life or death. Your Dad is in the arms of the highest power (The Lord) and from the heavens above He reaches His arms down to hold you all closer.....for Lenny shines on forever through his family to carry on his Greatest Legacy.....God Bless You All...Sending many thoughts, prayers and love.....Sharon and Billy O'Connor
