

Leonard M. Richmond

January 13, 1925 - August 5, 2018

Leonard M. Richmond, 93, of Hudson passed away peacefully at home Sunday August 5, 2018. Born January 13, 1925 in Lake Placid, he is the son of Leonard and Murtha Richmond.

Known as “The Tax Man”, for over 48 years, Leonard was a tax preparer and also owned several H&R Block franchises. He loved golf and hunting, and was an expert archer, winning many awards over the years. Leonard was an accomplished poet and always wrote a special Valentine’s Day poem for his beloved Jean.

Leonard is survived by his life companion of over 40 years Jean Salvatore, children Alicia Richmond, Scott Richmond, and Patricia Kane, grandchildren Leonard Paul, Andrew, Barna, Parker, Marcell, Amira, Micah, Anjolle, Alicia and Lyn, along with great grandchildren Marissa, Allison and Cecelia. Leonard is predeceased by his son Leonard Richmond and siblings William, Wally, Vernon and Leona.

Visitation at the Bates & Anderson Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home will be Thursday August 9, from 12-2pm, followed by graveside services at Cedar Park Cemetery.
