

Leonard Weed

December 5, 1942 - February 4, 2013

Leonard Weed, 70, of Greenport died Tuesday February 4, in Hudson. Born December 5, 1942 in Greenport, he is the son of Charles and Marion (Stickles) Weed.

Len was a unique and special person who enjoyed life. He had many loves during his life including his horse "Jim", his Harleys, and time spent on the river. He was a man of many talents, spending countless hours in his woodworking shop, and playing with his Massey tractor. Len loved his family, his country music and being the host to his "Friday night parties". He was always the life of the party where he could be found playing his guitar, his spoons or singing. Len loved life and everyone who knew him loved him.

Left to cherish Len's memory include his childhood sweetheart the former Patricia Edwards whom he married on August 13, 1962.

Children Teresa (Richard) Ohl of Hudson, Leonard Jr. (Holly) Weed of Germantown, and Tammy (Peter) Menzynski of Greenville, grandchildren, Richard Ohl of Hudson, Kalie, Courtney, and Nicholas Weed of Germantown and Kyle and Lauren Menzynski of Greenville.

Len is also survived by one sister Marion Weed of Ghent and several nieces and nephews. Len was predeceased by brothers Edward, Robert, Kenneth, and Charles Weed, and sisters Dorothea (Weed) Thompson, Mildred (Weed) Sickler, and infant sister Jeanette Weed.

Visitation from 10am-12pm will precede a 12:00 funeral service, Thursday at Bates and Anderson Redmond Keeler Funeral Home. Interment will be in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery in Greenport.

“ AS a former County Highway worker, I work with Lenny and never forgot him. He was a hard worker, gentleman, and was always freindly with his co workers. I know he loved the river and boating. I hope his family finds peace and have my deepest condolences. He will never be forgotten. May the Lord bless him, and his family in this time of greif.
