

Lois M. VanBuren

September 6, 1941 - January 15, 2015

Lois M. VanBuren, 73, of Livingston, passed away Thursday, January 15, 2015 at Pine Haven Nursing Home.

She was born in Kingston on September 6, 1941. Lois was a teller at the Bank of America in Hudson for over 20 years. She loved to travel and take long drives with her husband, James. She was devoted to her family and loved spending time with them especially her grandchildren. Lois also enjoyed doing jigsaw puzzles.

Surviving are her husband, James VanBuren of Livingston; three children, James VanBuren of Oviedo, Florida, Pamela VanBuren of Rosendale, NY, and Edward of Saugerties, NY; four grandchildren, Michael VanBuren, Matthew VanBuren, Hannah VanBuren, and Jacob VanBuren, two brothers, George Every and Donald Every, and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her brother, Raymond Every.

Funeral services are private.

Donations may be made to Progressice Supranuclear Palsy at psp.org.

Tribute Wall

DO

“ So sorry to hear about the passing of Lois. I know she will be missed. My condolences to the entire family.
Dotty

---

Dotty - January 16, 2015 at 05:26 PM

“ Words can't begin to express my condolences for your loss . It broke my heart to hear such a sweet lady has been taken although at least her pain has ended. I'm going to miss seeing her smile as well as yours mr.van buren but I feel blessed to have had the chance to know both of you. You will stay in the thoughts and heart. Sincerely
Amanda ( the runner) cna at PH

---

Amanda Dallas - January 16, 2015 at 12:09 PM