

Louise Q. Ingham

February 8, 1916 - August 24, 2019

Louise Quinn Ingham, 103, of Clermont, passed away August 24, 2019 at Northern Dutchess Hospital. She was born on February 8, 1916 in Warwick, New York to Arthur and Louise (Smith) Quinn. Louise graduated from Briarcliff High School in Westchester County and also from Packard Business School in New York City. Starting her working career she was a secretary to a bank official and commuted in to Manhattan daily.

In 1947 she married John H. Ingham Jr. and moved to Columbia County. In 1955 they bought a dairy farm, which became known as the Jack-Lu Farm. Later she began working as a legal secretary for Earl Schram Jr. and Charles Inman of Coffin, Inman, and Christiana for many years until her retirement. Louise enjoyed sewing, gardening, rug hooking, and feeding the birds. She loved Columbia County, especially Clermont and the Roe Jan Creek. She will be remembered as a devoted Mother, grandmother, friend and will be dearly missed.

Louise left behind her two beloved children; Louise Ann Ingham of Clermont, and John H. Inham (Penny) of Lowville, NY. Her dearly loved granddaughter, Emma Louise Ingham of Lowville, grandson, J. Patrick Ingham (Abigail) of Odessa, FL. Her great grandson, Jack Stuart Ingham, and her step grandchildren, Randi Shaw, and Michael Shaw. In addition to her many nieces, nephews, and her beloved dog Wendy.

She was predeceased by her husband, and her brother who was killed in World War II.

A funeral service will be held at Noon on Thursday, August 29, 2019 from Bates & Anderson – Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, 110 Green Street, Hudson. Visitation will begin at 10:00 am also on Thursday. Interment will be in Livingston Cemetery.
