“ I am so very sorry to hear of the passing of Lynda. My condolences to her sons; Ronnie, Timmy and Willy and their families. I knew Lynda from my work at Pine Haven. Lynda spoke many times of her love and concern for her sons, brothers and grandchildren. I was very fond of Lynda and was sure to visit her and invite her to activities on my every shift. Lynda and my mom knew each other in their younger years. I recently went to visit Pine Haven with my grandson. He gave Lynda a necklace and some cookies. That was my last visit with Lynda; which will remain a happy memory for me. My thoughts and prayers are with the family; hoping they may all find comfort in their happy memories ., Brenda Albright
