

Mabel B. Wloch

February 21, 1925 - August 11, 2013

Mabel B. Wloch, 88, formerly of Greenport, passed away Sunday, August 11, 2013 at Whittier Rehab and Skilled Nursing Center in Ghent with her loving family at her side.

Mrs. Wloch was born on February 21, 1925 in Hudson. She was the daughter of the late William and Alice (Kelly) Walsh. Mabel was a life-long area resident.

She worked at the Hudson Knitting Mills for over 42 years. She was a member of Trinity United Methodist Church, a member of the Stockport and Greenport Senior Citizens, and loved traveling, going to the casinos, slot machines, and crocheting. Mabel was devoted to her family.

Mrs. Wloch was the beloved mother of Stephen H. Wloch, Jr., and his wife, Jeannine, of Columbiaville; devoted grandmother of Nichole Hoyt, and her husband, Lonnie, of Columbiaville, and a loving great-grandmother to many. She also leaves many dear nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her husband, Stephen H. Wloch in 2003, three brothers, William, John, and Ken Walsh, and her sister, Dorothy Hagadorn.

Visiting hours are 6-8 pm Wednesday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond &

Keeler Funeral Home.

Services will be conducted at 10 am Thursday at the funeral home.

Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

Donations may be made to Trinity United Methodist Church.
