

Margaret Foster Burdwin

May 13, 1912 - July 5, 2013

Margaret Burdwin, 101, passed away Friday, July 5, 2013 at Barnwell Nursing Home in Valatie.

Born on May 13, 1912 in Hudson, she was the daughter of the late John and Susan Foster.

She was predeceased by her brother, Fred Foster, and her husbands, J. Kenneth Klemmer and Fred Burdwin.

Margaret is survived by two nieces, Gloria Bankowski, and her husband, Eugene, of Cape Cod, MA, and Joan Stark, and her husband, Fred, of West Taghkanic, and her nephew, Edward Foster, and his wife, Linda of Ghent. She also leaves a special friend, Cyndy Hall, and many great-nieces and great-nephews.

She lived in Stottville and worked for A.D. Julliard Woolens and for Columbia Memorial Hospital in the housekeeping department until retirement. She also resided in West Taghkanic and Hudson.

Margaret was a good neighbor, always ready to help anyone in need. She enjoyed her daily paper, crosswords, reading, swimming, and visits with her friends from Christ Church Episcopal. She was a member of the Hudson Elks Club and bowled in the ladies league there.

Memorial services will be held at 11 am Monday at Christ Church Episcopal.
