“ Sharing this candle in memory of one of the strongest women I have ever known.

Thanks to Margaret sharing her recipes and tips some 30 Years ago, I now make a great lasagna! We had our differences, my former mother-in-law and I, but we were always able to continue moving forward. A tribute to her character and strength!

Although gone from this earth, she will live on in the hearts of so many.

May she rest in peace.

“ *I have many many memories of grandma. She took very good care of me and spoiled me rotten :) many of us like to talk about Fourth of July and family gatherings . She used to throw some good ones! Oh and her pool hat! I have memories of setting up her Christmas tree, sleeping with shadow, going on trips with her , we loved playing card games together, shopping..... I could go on and on. I love you grandma .
RIP*

love you, and thanks for being my mom

rodney johnson - December 09, 2015 at 05:03 PM

So sorry for your loss, my Mom and Margaret were good friends when they worked together at the pocketbook factory.

Barbara Wahlers - December 10, 2015 at 06:28 AM

Your Mom must of been Doris!! Found some pictures of them together and I found some cards your Mom had sent over the years that my Mom held onto!! (Barbara Wahlers)
