Margaret (Sutty) Poprocki

Wednesday 07/27/2011 –

Margaret (Sutty) Poprocki, 95, of Taghkanic, formerly of Hudson, died peacefully with her daughters by her side on Wednesday July 27, 2011 at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

Born in Westfield, Massachusetts on January 8, 1916, she was the daughter of Louis and Alice (Sciutto) Sutty. She moved with her family to Hudson at age 3 where her parents owned and operated Louis Sutty & Co., a wholesale and retail dealer of fruits and vegetables located at 607 Warren Street known for imported fruits especially fresh ripened bananas and their freshly roasted peanuts were popularly enjoyed for many years. She worked in the store and was proud to be known among friends and the merchants of the city as “a Sutty girl”.

Margaret was known for her wit and determination. Her interests included crocheting, making many warm and beautiful blankets for family and friends. She read and collected recipes and enjoyed outings with her daughters especially spending sunny days at Lake Taghkanic, which she remembered as Lake Charlotte, and would fondly reminisce about days at her family’s cottage there. In the late 1960’s and early 1970’s she was employed with Mam’selle, a women’s clothing store.

Margaret is survived by her daughters Linda Feroe of Taghkanic, Lisa (Matthew) Bowe of Claverack and son Lance (Nancy) Feroe of Gravette, AR, four grandchildren – Garth Davis of Boston, MA, Clint, Hunter and Victoria Feroe of Gravette, AR and several nieces and a nephew. She was predeceased by her husbands Henry Feroe and Lewis Poprocki, brother Lawrence Suttty, sister Alice (Suttty) Melnick, a son Layton Feroe and a granddaughter Valari Feroe.

Calling hours are 6-7 pm Friday at the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, 110 Green St., Hudson. Private services will be held Saturday followed by burial at the family plot in Cedar Park Cemetery.
