

Marguerite E. Jenowich

July 7, 1921 - July 14, 2012

Marguerite E. Jenowich, 91, of Livingston, passed away Saturday, July 14, 2012 at Livingston Hills Nursing Home.

Born July 7, 1921 in Hudson, she was the daughter of the late Richard and Elizabeth (Hettesheimer) Moritz.

She was a nurses aide at the Firemen's Home and also packed fruit and worked at the Pocketbook Factory. She was a member of the Mt. Pleasant Reformed Church.

Mrs. Jenowich is survived by two nieces, Madelyn Cordato of Hudson and Clara Foster of Athens; two nephews, David Gagliardy of LaGrangeville and P. Henry Lambert of Elka Park; two grand-nieces, Sandy Sasso of Athens and Sherry Backman of Gilbertsville, and four grand-nephews, Raymond Fish of East Berlin, Richard Gagliardy of LaGrangeville, Robert Gagliardy of Poughkeepsie, and Joseph Cordato of Taghkanic.

She was predeceased by her husband, William Jenowich, who died in World War II; two sisters, Clara Cole and Marie Lambert, and her long time companion, Edward Sheldon.

Graveside services will be conducted at 11 am today (Tuesday) at Hudson

City Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Mt. Pleasant Reformed Church in Greenport.

Tribute Wall

VB

“ Dear Family,
I send my condolences.. Lou and I moved last Sept. to an apt. in a Sr housing south of Clifton Park. Mar.9th Lou passed away and I couldn't come to Maruerete,s memorial.Did have a nice visit with her at Whitter. Sure miss the farm. God Bless Vi Bramkamp

---

Viola Bramkamp - July 25, 2012 at 08:26 PM