“ My loving cousin Maria and the Godmother of my older son was so much a part of my life growing up. It has taken me a few days to be able to post this because the pain of her passing goes deep. Maria and I had so much fun over many summers walking to the Post Arrow from her home in the Bronx, buying earrings at the drug store, wearing bell bottoms, rolling our hair in coffee cans, spending time with our friends in Whitey’s garage across the street, offering her young sister nickels to quiet down, eating the tops off coffee cakes in the country, playing checkers and watching Peyton Place at night with Aunt Louise, and cuddling and cajoling together with Aunt Louise in bed for a little while before breakfast. Most recently this February Maria and I spoke for the last time. I must find a way to move forward and I know that. The best I can do is to try very hard to emulate Maria’s graciousness toward others. Her sense of humor, studiousness. and love of animals have always led me.

“ Maria, Pat, and I were best buddies in elementary school. I spent a lot of time at her house with her wonderful family. We lost touch, but I thought about her often. After reconnecting on Facebook we said we should get together but never did. I really wish I had seen her again. RIP my dear friend.
