Marian was a long-time resident of Poughquag, NY and was a homemaker and caretaker for many years and later worked at Bill Kieran, Inc. car dealership in Pawling and then for M & S of Pawling until her retirement in 2011.

Throughout her life, she enjoyed spending time with her family, watching her grandchildren and great-grandchildren grow, and taking motorcycle rides with her husband

Marian is survived by her children Lorraine Ruffino and husband Andy of Morris, NY, Anthony Nardone, Jr. and wife Doris of Poughkeepsie, Nancy Wells and husband David of Hyde Park and Elizabeth Kirchner of Highland. Also surviving are her three sisters, Lorraine Capuano-Casella and Diane Capuano both of Long Island and Susan Mercay of Hyde Park.

She is survived by seven grandchildren, Rebecca Ruffino, Anthony Nardone III, Lisa Nardone, Paul Nardone, Todd Johnson, Nicole Howie and Daniel Kirchner.

She was also blessed with four great grandchildren, Gianna Johnson, Ana Kirchner, Connor, and Cadence Howie along with many cousins, and several nieces and nephews.

She was predeceased by her son-in-law Roger Kirchner.
