Marie Yvonne Koulos

Marie Yvonne Koulos passed away peacefully on June 12, 2026, at the age of 84.

Born on May 24, 1942, in Oberlienz, Austria, Marie's life was defined by her devotion to family, her creativity, and her quiet strength. She immigrated to the United States as a young girl and built a life centered on hard work, love, and caring for those around her.

Marie graduated from Washington Irving High School in Brooklyn, New York, where she studied dressmaking and dress design. Her talent and attention to detail led her to a long career as a seamstress, a profession she took great pride in. Her gift for sewing extended beyond her work and into the lives of those she loved. Her grandchildren will always cherish the many Halloween costumes she lovingly created for them over the years, each one a reflection of her creativity and generosity.

Marie was predeceased by her beloved husband of 50 years, Thomas James Koulos, with whom she shared a lifetime of love, partnership, and family memories.

She is survived by her loving daughter, Rosalie Carey and her husband Sean; her stepson, Kurt Koulos and his partner Cherie; her brother, Michael Bereza and his wife Evie; and her sister, Martha Pierson. She also leaves behind her cherished grandchildren, Elizabeth Lynch, Zachary Carey and his wife Siobhan, Lucas Carey, and Jillian Carey, as well as her treasured great-grandson, Cary Lynch..

Of all the roles Marie held throughout her life, being a grandmother was among her greatest joys. She delighted in family gatherings, celebrating milestones, and creating lasting memories with her grandchildren. Her love, warmth, and unwavering support were gifts that will continue to live on in the hearts of those she leaves behind.

Marie will be remembered for her kindness, resilience, talent, and deep love for her family. Though she will be greatly missed, her legacy will endure through the many lives she touched and the memories she helped create.

The family finds comfort in knowing that Marie is now reunited with her beloved husband, Thomas, and is at peace.

In keeping with Marie's wishes, there will be a small private service with the immediate family.
