“ It was truly a pleasure to reconnect with Marion through the Firemen's Home. You could see her compassion by the way she cared for the residents. It was like they were her own family. I will always be grateful for the kindness she showed my Dad while he was there.

She often spoke of her son with so much pride. It was nice to hear how he was doing and how much joy she gained from him.

My thoughts are with Marion's family.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Marion's passing. I have so many fond memories of growing up next door to her, and all the Markowitz's on Worth Avenue. I feel so bad that Marion has passed on, but surely her sweet, beautiful spirit lives on in heaven. My prayers are with all of you for peace and comfort.
