

Mariyah Lynn Ridley

April 10, 1998 - August 10, 2022

Mariyah Lynn Ridley, 24, of Hudson, NY, passed away in the presence of her loving family on August 10, 2022 in New York City.

Mariyah was a very loving kind hearted person. She was the life of the party, no matter where she was. Her goal was to always make a bad situation good, to avoid arguments and confrontation, and insure that everyone just get along and have fun. She had the kindest heart and soul, helping any and everyone she ever could. Mariyah loved and cherished her family and her fiancé Erica with all her heart. She was very protective of her whole family. No matter how sick, or how weak she ever was, Mariyah always “had your back”. She fought the long hard fight with strength and courage, and never a complaint. Mariyah was and forever will be our baby who will be dearly missed.

Born in Hudson, NY, Mariyah graduated from Hudson High School where she excelled in basketball. She loved music and was a talented musician, performing songs that she would learn from YouTube on her organ and drumset.

Mariyah will be forever loved and missed by her mother and stepfather Melissa and Ainsley White, her father Joseph Ridley Sr., fiancé Erica Fuentes, brother Joseph Ridley Jr., sisters Vanessa, Krystal, and Monique Ridley, grandmother Minnie Ridley, nephews Elijah, Jayson, and Giovanni, niece Nyla-jay, and several aunts uncles and cousins.
