“ David & Family.
I have nothing but fond memories of attending St. Patrick's High School and graduating with Mary Jane in 1969. Hard to believe not only was that 50 years ago, but also that she is now in the arms of our heavenly father at such a young age. GOD bless Mary Jane and her family still surviving here on earth.

“ I read this and initially I felt such a sadness. And then my thoughts went back to working with Mary Jane at the bank. For being at work, we had the best times ever! And then there were our Friday nights "about the town" after work. These were times I can honestly say I don't think I ever laughed so much. Mary Jane was a good friend and so much fun to be with! My love, thoughts and sympathy go out to all of her family.

Mary Jane expected details to be completed, and they better be too. She was a consummate professional and a person you could trust. When she reaches her destination, she'll insist on details immediately. And they better be correct.
