“ To Mary’s Family: please accept our deepest sympathy on your loss. Memories of Mary are abundant! Everyone that knew her, loved her. While she had a serious side, my memories of Mary will always be the good times we shared. She shared pictures of her younger life with us! We went to many dinners together. We drank tea together and shared a million laughs. I have to admit my husband could make her laugh so hard she would gasp for breath! She loved to read Italian jokes and roll her eyes. I think I heard stories about her children that even they forgot! She loved her family, deeply and loyally! We will be forever grateful for knowing her! RIP Mary. John has waited a long time for this reunion. We wish you eternal peace! 🙏🌹🙏
