

Neal W. Halloran

October 21, 1941 - January 13, 2017

Neal W. Halloran, 75, of Hudson, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, January 13, 2017.

Born October 21, 1941 in Hudson, he was the son of the late Francis and Frances (Kaczanowcke) Halloran.

Neal was a graduate of Hudson High School and the New York State Teachers College at Oneonta, NY. He was a devoted English teacher in the Hudson City School District and a faithful member of St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

He is survived by his brother Ronald (Cathy) Halloran of Poughkeepsie, NY, his niece, Jennifer Halloran of Poughkeepsie, NY, his nephew Ryan (Jill) Halloran and their sons Luke and Cade of Norman, Oklahoma, and several cousins.

Neal was a thoughtful and humorous man who led a quiet and dignified life. He held a special place in the hearts of his family as a devoted son, brother, uncle and great-uncle. He will be greatly missed by all who loved him.

Visiting hours are 4-6pm Thursday January 19, at the Bates & Anderson – Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be held at 11am at St. Mary's Church, 429 East Allen Street, Hudson, Friday January 20th.

Interment will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice.

“ The Living Word of God tells us that weeping may endure for a night, but joy does come in the morning. May you find peace in the memories that you have of your loved one, Mr. Halloran.

I was one of his students. It's because of teachers like Mr. Halloran that I went on to excel in school. He believed in me, like he did all of his students. He encouraged, stretched and pushed me and let me know that I was "somebody" and I could do anything that I put my mind to. He truly was "called" to his ministry of teaching; and you will never know how many young lives he touched in such a profound way. His Reward is in Heaven.

*Grace, Peace, and Blessings.

“ Neal was a colleague of mine for 18 years. I don't think he ever missed a day of work. He lived an exemplary life and will be missed, and remembered by all who knew him.
