February 27, 1934 - September 21, 2022

Orville Ackley Knowlton, 88, of Owego, NY, passed peacefully on September 21, 2022, at the FASNY Firefighters Home in Hudson, NY. Orville Ackley Knowlton, 88, of Owego, NY, passed peacefully on September 21, 2022, at the FASNY Firefighters Home in Hudson, NY.

Orville was born to Orville Pierce Knowlton and Hazel Mae (Nichols) Knowlton Dutton of Owego, NY, on February 27, 1934. He worked as a groom caring for horses at race tracks and equestrian sites around New York for many years. Orville was a volunteer firefighter with the Owego Fire Department for many years before moving to the FASNY Fireman's Home in 1998 to live. He enjoyed activities that included the model train club, singing, trips to various events, and the outdoors. Debating about baseball, good food, and creating laughter were favorite past times. He was considered to be a delightful member of his community.

Orville had two sisters Elizabeth (Knowlton) Herrala of Barton, NY, and Beatrice (Knowlton) Kishpaugh of Owego, NY, along with two brother-in-laws Robert Kishpaugh, and John Herrala, and several nieces and nephews.

In place of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the FASNY Firefighter's Home, 125 Harry Howard Avenue, Hudson, NY 12534, or online at firemenshome.com/give in Orville's name.

Burial will be at Tioga Cemetery in Owego, NY, at a future date. There will be no visitation or funeral services held.

The family wishes to extend their gratitude to the FASNY Firefighters' Home for the care and love they shared with Orville during his time there.
