“ Scott,
My deepest condolences on the passing of your Mom. I first met her as a youngster attending Oakdale Playground. She was a counselor at the playground and did the arts and crafts in the building by the side of Glenwood Blvd., the street I grew up on. Later in life we would be co-workers at Greenport School. Her life centered around you. She often talked about her grandchildren, sister, and nieces, but, most of any conversation was about Scott. She lived for you. The last time I spoke with her, earlier this year, I knew that she was in failing health. I sincerely hope that she eventually received our Christmas card. She was an individual who truly cared about others. But above all, she cared about you. The last months had to be extremely tough on her. The pain is gone. Now she can experience the joy of Heaven. May she rest in peace.
