“ I had the pleasure of spending time with Pat two years ago when I decided to visit my sister-in-law Erika Schroeder and family at Christmas time. One day we decided to go Christmas shopping and we laughed when Pat thought she left a present she purchased at the store, so a few days later we returned to the store to claim her present (a scarf). Since I have a big mouth both Erika and Pat put me in charge of explaining how positive Pat was about leaving her gift after paying. Days later Pat found the original scarf but kept the replacement. I asked Pat if she was going to return one and she said with a big laugh “Heck no” We really had a good time. Although I never had the pleasure of spending enough time with Pat I had the blessing of knowing her for over 50 years. She was family to me. Pat, you will be missed.
Much ❤️ Nilsa & Erik. R.I.P. 🙏

“ This is to Pat's grandson Matthew and his wife and children, and also to Pat's daughter Becky and son Mark, and all her Schroeder relatives:

Our deepest sympathy on the loss of your mother and grandmother. We remember Pat for the many times she stopped by on Schroeder Road while we were doing yet more puttering around with something else with our yard and pond, and whatever, and she would ask "Now what are you doing? But it looks good!" That was very nice as we were concerned about our impacting the neighborhood that she so loved.

*We will miss her too.
