

Paul K. McNeill

January 15, 1953 - May 24, 2017

Paul K. McNeill, 64, died at home on May 24, 2017. He was born January 15, 1953 in Hudson. He was the son of William E. and Nellie (Shufelt) McNeill. He enjoyed horticulture and taking care of his property and gardens, in addition to being an animal lover. He would often be found tinkering and working on small engines and especially his lawn tractors. Most of all, he enjoyed spending time with his family. He enjoyed being around people, especially telling jokes. Paul was the past president of the Mellenville Union Cemetery Association, a position he held for about 5 years.

He is survived by his loving wife, of 42 years, Diane, and his adoring son and best friend, Joshua Paul McNeill. Also his sister in law Linda (Harder) McNeill, in addition to several other sisters and brothers in-law, his father and mother in-law Lester and Ruth Ogden, and several nieces, nephews, and cousins.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his brother William Daniel McNeill.

“ All the memories flooded over the last few days. I think my favorite was on a regular visit with Nellie. While Gran and her were visiting, Paul would keep walking through the kitchen and stealing cookies for him and I. By the time Nellie realized what he was doing, we had eaten way too many. She chased us out with Paul laughing all the way. When we got outside, he pulled 2 more from his pocket. Childhood friends are the family we choose for ourselves...forever. Watch over us Paul...luv u
