

Paul W. Vandenburg

June 5, 1935 - April 21, 2020

Paul W. Vandenburg, 84, of Stockport, passed away Tuesday April 21, 2020. Born June 5, 1935 in Hudson, NY, he is the son of Fred and Myrtle (Heap) Vandenburg.

Paul was a construction worker with the Laborers Union Local 190 of Albany. He was a huge collector of anything and everything, who loved flea markets, yard sales, and auctions. He loved riding around the county with his sister Vi just looking for the next best bargain. Paul loved parades, and would always be seen riding along in the infamous Jeep Willy alongside his pal Vince. Paul was a lifelong Columbia County resident, and Member of the Stockport Fire Co.

Left to cherish his memory are his daughters Bonnie and Chris, grandchildren Thomas and Jack, sister Viola Williams, and brother in law Jerry Jennings, along with many nieces and nephews. Paul was predeceased by his sons Paul "Winky" Vandenburg, and Jon Vandenburg, and his siblings Sylvester, Ralph, Margaret, Marie and Audrey.

Memorial services will be announced at a future date. Contributions in memory of Paul may be made to the Stockport Fire Co.

Tribute Wall

FM

“ My deepest sympathies to Paul's family, especially Vi. I always enjoyed visiting with Paul at his yard sales on Memorial and Labor Day weekends. With fond memories, Fran Meltz

Fran Meltz - April 27, 2020 at 10:14 PM