“ Phil was one of the nicest men that I knew. When he went blue fishing , he always bought me back one because he knew the kids and myself ate it. My husband Dick always told everyone he was a fine man to work for. My sympathies to the family and May you Rest In Peace Phil. Mary Ellen Tompkins

“ Phil was like another dad to me... growing up spending as much time in their home as my own. He was a wonderful man and he will be missed.
