“ Hi Ray, I came on here tonight to say my final goodbyes, but then I remembered, it is not final, we will see each other in Heaven someday, so for now I will just say, see ya and take care. Love Sue

“ Hi Ray, I know they God only takes the best, but does he have to take all the great ones, you were the best. We always had a good time when we went anywhere with you and Betty, we are going to miss those times; the times when we went out to eat and you would give the waitress a hard time, it was all in fun. You are in peace now so R.I'P You don't have to worry, we will all take good care of Betty, but as you know, she is very capable of taking care of herself, You will be missed by all, you were such a great guy and if you knew how much trouble I had sending this, you would be laughing at me right now, every time I got almost done I would hit something wrong and wipe everything out. We didn't have any favorite memories, because they were all memorable ones. Betty you know you are in our hearts and prayers and we are there for you, anytime you need us. Love you both, Sue

“ I remember when he used to laugh at me, cause I used to root so hard for the Buffalo Bills and, Susie and Phil and I went there one time for the playoffs and they won, and got into the superbowl, AGAIN, just to lose again, He laughed at me a lot for that one, and the time we all went to Washington D.C. and to all the museums and stayed in a condo. Those were some good times. Thanks Ray, and Bless all the family and friends.
