“ Renee was a dear friend in high school. A pleasure to hang out with, either my house or hers. So sincere in her actions & words. Wouldn't hurt a fly (well maybe a snake). We recently renewed our friendship when she was in hospital & unable to attend our 50th high school reunion. She was so eager to get to rehab with the hope of returning home, “to prove to everyone” she could do it. We hoped to meet up on my next trip to NY.
