

Richard C. Howard

October 8, 1939 - February 19, 2014

Richard C. Howard, 74, of Kinderhook, died Wednesday, February 19, 2014 at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

Born October 8, 1939 in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, he was the son of the late Clarence and Catherine Howard.

Richard served in the US Army from 1961 until 1963. He served as a military policeman and assistant to the Provost Marshall at Fort Eustis, VA. He attended Central College in Pella, Iowa. Richard was an insurance representative for Quincy Mutual in Massachusetts. He was a member and past commander of the Philmont American Legion 252 and was interested in national and local politics.

He is survived by his wife, Gail (Card) Howard, three children, Kelly (Robert) Pearson of North Carolina, Stacy (Daniel) Casey of Kinderhook, and Brian (Gina) Howard of Valatie, two brothers, Albert J. (Pat) Howard of Loudonville and Clarence Howard of Philmont, and 11 grandchildren.

In addition to his parents, he was predeceased by his son, Scott Howard, and his sister, Anne Howard.

Visiting hours are 4-7 pm Monday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond &

Keeler Funeral Home. Services will follow at 7 pm at the funeral home.

Tribute Wall

KW

“ Sending prayers and love to the family from Kim and Darryl Willard.

kim willard - February 24, 2014 at 09:57 AM

JS

“ Mrs. Howard and Family - we are so sorry for your loss. We pray the memories and love of friends and family will support you during this time. Mr. Howard was a part of my childhood memories - memories I will always cherish..... much love..... Joan and John Spencer

Joan Spencer - February 22, 2014 at 04:50 PM

GS

“ *Gail and family,
Our deepest condolences to you on the loss of your husband, father and grandfather. We always enjoyed talking to him on our walks when he was outside your Milo Street house. May he rest in peace and may the Lord give you comfort during this time of sorrow.
George and Sharon Esposito*

George and Sharon - February 21, 2014 at 07:08 AM