“ We are deeply saddened by the loss of our dear friend Richard. Our most sincere sympathy to Dorean Gardner, who through the years was always at Richard's side, and to the Waldorf family. We have shared many good times and have great memories. We could always count on Richard to make things interesting, whether it was at a restaurant where we would always tease him about paying the bill or when we would take weekend sightseeing rides where he would give us driving directions that always took us the long way to our destination. As an avid trucker, he knew all the "shortcuts" and alternate routes and believe me we took them all! Every time we hear the gentle sounds of a wind chime, which he loved to listen to, we will think of Richard. Thank you for the memories Dick, you will always be with us!

“ I worked with Richard back in the late 60's. Lost contact with him until this last Jan.when I was down that way and just dropped in on him and Dorean. I remember him as a great guy and lots of fun. My thoughts and prayers go out to Dorean and all the family.

“ It was over beautiful dinners prepared by his beloved Dorean, that Richard when coaxed would tell of his many journeys, adventures and the thousands of miles he'd driven across this country commanding a sixteen or eighteen wheel truck. When asked, "Tell me Richard do you know when one of the wheels is not right ?" And he'd answer with his eyes glistening...."Ohhh yes!.... You can feel it....you can hear it....the machine talks to you..." Short haul or long he made trucking an art form.....thank you Richardthe angels must be in their glory with your teaching them how to drive....Love, Thom & Judith Christopher

“ Dorean, Family and Friends of Dick. I am sorry to hear of Dick's passing. It is never easy letting go of the ones we love. We don't have too; because for every moment they shared with us, is a piece of them we hold forever. All of those moments while washing the trucks and soaking each other. The times you all had those BBQ's. If those are yours to hold. Know that he is still with you when you sit in a quiet place and feel his spirit next to you . I will hold you all in my thoughts and prayers. Mary Lou Hill
