

Richelle Olm

May 30, 1968 - December 20, 2021

CRARYVILLE- Richelle Olm of Craryville, NY, passed away Monday afternoon, from her battle of cancer December 20,2021 at St.Peters Hospital.

Born on May 30,1968 in Hudson, NY and graduate of Hudson High School. She was a server at Martindale Chief Diner and Main Street Diner in Valatie for many years.

She was predeceased by her parents Richard E. Olm and Patrica Olm. She survived by her loving fiancé Michael Masten, her loving children Christopher Rowan, Nathaniel Picardi, and Michaela Masten, her two grandsons Levi Lachance and Theodore Picardi. She also survived by her Aunt Nancy (Olm) Scalera, brothers John and Richard Olm, and her sisters Lisa and Kim Zullo. As well as numerous loved ones and friends.

She was devoted to all of her daughters softball games. She also loved the outdoors and has been camping since she was a little girl. She spent most of her summers in the Adirondack's and fell in love with everything about it, from the lakes and the streams to the trails and the mountains. Her favorite thing to say every Friday, "North Bound!". She will be sadly missed and remembered by many. Richelle was always a helping hand to anyone that truly needed it. She was a hard worker and managed to fulfill most of her life's dreams.
