“ Goodbye my friend. I am sooo thankful our paths crossed some 35 years ago. We shared alot during those years. I watched your grandchildren grow and you watched my children grow. How you loved your family. My daughter still makes the fried dough you taught her how to make years ago....picking cherries art the Baker Farm, rides in the country, going to the vegetable stand, sewing in your back room. The list goes on and on...you touch my heart and my family. We will surely miss you.....Elli

*Mickey and Alice...how do I thank you for keeping in touch....letting me know when she was ill, in the hospital and the last phone call to let me know she had passed away.
Rose was very special to me.*

Please accept my deepest sympathy for a wonderful and caring person that anyone would be happy to call Mom ,Aunt, Sister etc., but most of all GRAMMY!!!! Joe and I had great times visiting with her with our daughter Michele and her family on several occasions. She would make her famous pasta and meatballs that was so delicious and always had her home made cookies waiting for dessert!!!! She was GRAMMY to everyone and her memories will live on. Rest In Peace GRAMMY.
