

Royal Mack Dingman

October 29, 1939 - November 27, 2017

Royal Mack Dingman, 78, of Columbiaville died Monday November 27, at his residence. Born October 29, 1939 in Hudson, NY he is the son of Maxwell and Beatrice (LaBrie) Dingman.

Roy graduated from Hudson High School class of 1957. He served in Company C 1st Battalion 210th Armour Division in the Army National Guard of New York. He served as a reservist for many years after his active duty. After a period as a self employed truck driver, he became a Teamster for 27 years working for Harder's (later Friedman's) Express in Claverack. Royal then became a self employed contractor, specializing in renovation. He formed a partnership with his son that lasted 20 years. Roy loved the outdoors and was an avid sportsman. He enjoyed camping, hunting and boating. He especially liked fishing with his grandson Nathan and teasing his other grandson Austin. He also loved spending time with his dog Molly.

Roy is survived by his son David Dingman, daughter Bonnie Merritt, grandsons Nathan James and Austin Lee Merritt, and brother Bruce Martin Dingman. Roy was predeceased by his wife Judith (Waltermire) Dingman in 2009.

Funeral services from the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home are Friday December 1, at 11:00am. Visitation hours at the funeral home are Thursday evening from 5-7pm. Interment will be in Stuyvesant Falls Cemetery.
