

Salvatore A. D'Amico

May 8, 1937 - December 17, 2025

Salvatore D'Amico, 88, of Claverack passed away Wednesday December 17, 2025. Born May 8, 1937 in Brooklyn, he is the son of Mario and Mary D'Amico. Salvatore is survived by his loving wife Marie in a blessed marriage of over 67 years. Salvatore and Marie lived in Briarwood, Queens for 31 years, and moved to Claverack in 1992. Salvatore is also survived by his sister Carmela Amato of Queens along with several nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, Salvatore was predeceased by his brothers James and Dominic Fuschetti, Angelo and Michael D'Amico, along with sisters Grace Ferranti, Josephine Casciello and Lucy Fusco.

Sal was a devoted parishioner of Holy Trinity Parish-St. Mary's Church. He was the Lead Usher for Saturday evening Mass and worked tirelessly for the Christian Service Committee.

Visitation hours at the Bates & Anderson-Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home are Monday December 22, from 4:00-6:00pm.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be celebrated Tuesday December 23, at 9:00am from Holy Trinity St. Mary's Parish in Hudson, NY. Entombment will follow in Mt. Olivet Cemetery in Maspeth, NY.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions made to St Mary's Church Rectory Heating Project would be greatly appreciated.

Sal always had a smile, and will be missed by all who knew and loved him.

“ Dear Sal,

You a part of our family. A sweet and quiet man, Sal didn't need many words to leave an impression. And yet, when he spoke, it was often with a perfectly timed Italian one-liner that caught us by surprise and always made us laugh. His warmth, his calm presence, and his quiet humor will be deeply missed.

We are grateful for the moments, the smiles, and the memories we were lucky enough to share with him. Sal will always hold a special place in our hearts.

May you rest in peace, Sal. You will never be forgotten.

*With love,
Maria, Eric, and Isabella*
