

Sandra Lee Febbie

February 1, 1941 - February 24, 2012

Sandra Lee Febbie, 71, of Schenectady, passed away Friday, Feb. 24, 2012 at Springside in Pittsfield, MA.

Born Feb. 1, 1941 in Schenectady, she was the daughter of the late Ed and Marjorie Febbie.

Sandra is survived by her brother, Thomas (Gina) Febbie of Greenport; her sister, Terry (Teddy) Wondell of St. Augustine, FL; her uncle, Chuck Sperbeck of Indian Lake; three nephews, Scott (Rachel) Febbie of Londonderry, VT., Mark Preble of Johnstown, and Douglas Henry of Schenectady, two nieces, Suzan Ives of Florida and Patty Ford of Rochester, and many grandnieces and grandnephews.

Sandra worked at G.E. in Schenectady for 20 years as a sub-contractor. She was in on the ground floor of data input on turbine generators and nuclear reactors. She was a good athlete and bowler. She bowled against some of the best women bowlers in Schenectady like her friend, Carol Guidarelli, who was in the Hall of Fame and bowled on TV Tournament Time and the Schenectady City League.

She was fond of animals, especially her dog, Gabby, who she had since 2000.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family.

“ I knew Sandy since the 60's we even worked at Sterling Drug together for a short period of time. Just a couple of years long ago we renewed our friendship by e-mail after Caromae Scott passed on. Then I had my e-mails was returned as unknown. I searched local Nursing homes trying to find Sandy. After I reached out to Annie Fredericks to see if she had heard anything thinking that I might had missed a notification and she also searched.”

I'm very sorry for the family's lost. Sandy could be a very humerous person or hard. I've missed her e-mails.
