“ Sandy and I first met a little over 6 years ago on a game on our cell phones after time we became friends then good friends and on to best friends we talked about everything and we had no secrets. In February 2018 I flew to New York to meet her face to face and in the Instant we looked into each others eyes we Kissed and that was it we knew that we were meant to be together. I moved to New York in May 2018 and we lived together until she passed we had our ups and downs but we had each other and we had a love that neither of us had ever had before..... I love you my AngelEyeZzz you will always be in my heart. We will be together again until then look in on us from time to time and come talk to me in my dreams.....
