

Sharon A. Hazelton

January 12, 1951 - January 24, 2013

On A cold January morning on the 12th day of 1951, Sharon, and her twin sister, Sheila, were born.

She was born to Jesse and Anna Van Valkenburgh. They were the first twins born that year and their parents received many gifts from the hospital, doctors, and well wisher in Ulster County.

She attended 1st and 2nd grade in a one room school house in Asbury N.Y. She later attended a grade school in the village of Saugerties and later Saugerties High School, where she graduated in 1969. She worked for a few years at various places. Through a friend, she met her husband George Hazelton, whom she married on February 26, 1977. Together they had three wonderful children, Kimberly, Amy, and Philip.

Kimberly gave her a grandson, Jay Jr., and Amy gave her a grandson, Fred Jr., and a granddaughter, Shania. Her husband George passed away on April 6, 2011. Sharon was strong willed and sometimes stubborn. She survived a near fatal illness 13 years ago. This time as hard as she fought, she lost her battle with cancer. She lost her battle on January 24, 2013.

She is survived by her children, Kimberly, Amy, and Philip; her son in law, Fred Sackett, her grandchildren, Fred Jr., Shania, and Jay Jr., and two sisters,

Sheila Sjursen, and her husband, Karl, and Christine Van Valkenburgh. Also surviving is her special Aunt Tanta, special friend, Dane Canelli, her sister in law, Patricia Race, and several cousins, nieces, nephews, and many loving friends. She also leaves her loving pets, Butch, Molly, Dolly, and Lilly.

The family would like to give special thanks to Neida Jimenez, Cheryl Gaylord, and all of the staff with Community Hospice, especially Janice and Rose. Her family would also like to extend thanks to everyone for their prayers.
