“ Stacy and I go way back from our time at Hudson City Savings Bank, my memory from then is when Scott would come and pick her up in his monster truck, it was so high off the ground that she had all she could do to climb in, all of us would watch from the drive thru, of course this was when they were dating. Then years later as our children went to school together, we picked up right where we left off as friends! Stacy had such a beautiful soul and was always smiling! She always took the time out to stop and chat when we would run into each other, just catching up on our lives and our families. She was one of the strongest people that I knew!!!! No matter how tough things got with her! My heart goes out to Brittany, Kelley, Kyle and grandbabies. I am sure that your Mom is watching over you from up above. I will miss running into and chatting, Love you.
