“ Rest In Peace Tommy.. “you yourself were a song. A beautiful song we’d all love to hear over and over again, never getting tired of it. I’ve seen your pain and felt it with you. I seen you happy and been happy along side of you. You never wanted anything for yourself but the love, happiness and friendship of others. I’d be satisfied if I could die simply near as beautiful a soul as you. God bless you brother I will see you on the other side 🌟❤️

“ Tommy was a kind soul. One who was quick with a laugh or a hug. He loved his music, playing it and commenting on what was on the jukebox. They say "the eyes are the window to the soul", his were always smiling. To all the Foxes, family and friends, "may Tommy's memory be a comfort and blessing to you all". He is already truly missed.
