Thomas Rappleyea

Oct. 13, 1931 - July 2, 2015

Thomas Rappleyea was born on October 13, 1931 in Hudson, NY to Harold and Martha Rappleyea. Tom departed this life on July 2, 2015. .

After graduating from high school, Tom served in the US Air Force including a tour in Greenland. Returning home from the military, he attended Hudson Valley Community College. For the majority of his life he worked in the insurance business establishing Rappleyea's Insurance Agency. Tom was a devoted family man creating many memories of special family events and fun vacations that will be cherished forever. It was a great joy to be around Tom. His outgoing personality and sense of humor will be sorely missed by all who new him. Tom was a member of the Hudson Elks Lodge, the Federation of Polish Sportsmen, the Hudson VFW, the American Legion, and Becraft Fire Company #2.

He is survived by his two daughters, Susan (Gary) and Diane (Ralph) and his two grandchildren, Alison and Nick; many beloved nieces and nephews and their families; and his loving partner Adrienne Lustiber. He was preceded in death by his wife Dolores "Ollie" Rappleyea in 2003; his parents Harold and Martha Rappleyea; brother Hap Rappleyea; and sisters: Margaret, Jackie

Nack, Jeanette Hapemen, and Cody Halstead.

The family would like to extend our heartfelt appreciation to Adrienne for her excellent care and compassion for Dad during his last challenging years. Also we would like to acknowledge the attention and kind support from Martha Pizza, David Halstead, Firemen's Home and Hospice Services.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10:00 am Monday at Holy Trinity Parish, St. Mary's Church, 429 East Allen St., Hudson, NY, 12534. Interment will be in Cedar Park Cemetery in Hudson. .
