

Thomas J. Tiano Jr.

May 21, 1944 - July 2, 2021

Thomas J. "T-Bone" Tiano Jr., 77, of Hudson, passed away Friday July 2, 2021 in Hudson, NY. Born May 21, 1944 in Hudson, he is the son of Thomas J. and Shirley (Miller) Tiano Sr.

A lifelong Hudson resident, T-Bone graduated from Hudson High School Class of 1964, and then proudly served in the United States Army until 1970. He retired from the Hudson Correctional Facility after serving 27 years as a Corrections Officer. T-Bone was a Life Member of the Federation of Polish Sportsmen and Hudson Elks Lodge #787. He was a lifelong, diehard fan of the New York Yankees and Giants. T-Bone also excelled at bowling, and did bowl a perfect 300 game. A devoted family man, the love for his family was immeasurable. He leaves to cherish his memory, his beloved wife Sandra (Shetsky) Tiano, sons Thomas and Robert Tiano, grandchildren Tyler Tiano, Robert Tiano Jr., and Kaylee (Kalib) Failing, great granddaughter Adalyn April Failing, sister Elizabeth Putnam, brother Joseph Tiano, and several nieces and nephews.

“ My sincere condolences to the Tiano family. I have many fond memories of T-Bone hanging out with my father at the old Paramount Grill, playing men's city league softball and bowling at Hendrick Hudson Lanes. He was a true Hudson legend and will be surely missed. God Bless and Rest In Peace T-Bone.
