She enjoyed driving around the county looking for yards sales and flea markets. Her kindness and generosity will leave a true gap in community. She will be missed by her family and friends.

“ We went to the same church years ago. We have very fond memories of her. She was always so kind and sweet. A pleasure to be around. We loved visiting her at her home or shop. If we could only be half as kind and sweet as her then we would be blessed beyond measure. Condolences to her family. May God comfort your hearts at this time.

Sincerely

“ Vi was my mother's childhood friend. I knew her all of my life (my grands were Maude & Ed Wright) and have many memories of Vi, her boys and the Chittenden Road gang. Stockport has lost a memory keeper who knew the ins and outs of the community like no one else. My condolences to her family. Paula Leck
